Notes

- The records shown are summary public records of all recorded burials and cremations.
- Where somebody has been cremated in Dunedin and their ashes buried in a Dunedin Cemetery there will be two records for that person; one for the cremation, and one for the ash burial.
- "Next of Kin" is made public if permission to do so has been granted by those involved.
- The information displayed here may contain errors, including spelling and typographic errors.
- To find out where this burial is within the cemetery, click "PDF Map" to display a map of the cemetery which shows the block references.

- Tip: Once you have the map open you can zoom in and do a text search for the block reference as indicated in the location information above.
- For further information, or to report errors, contact cemetery@dcc.govt.nz
